

The logo features the word "scarbro" in a stylized font with a white square behind the 's', followed by "2019" in a large, white, sans-serif font, and "CARO BOWL" in a bold, white, sans-serif font below it.

scarbro 2019 CARO BOWL

1 NOVEMBER – 6 DECEMBER

Scarbro Caro Bowl 2019 Round 1

Men Pool A

Defending champion Karaka opened the 2019 season with a strong 5-1 win over Royal Oak on Friday night. The Karaka side was missing a couple of top players but still managed to round out a comfortable victory with imports Bradley Mousley and Frank Moser leading the charge. Cockle Bay welcomed Bucklands Beach to the competition by handing them a 5-1 defeat. Nick Beamish scored a win for Bucklands Beach in the top singles against Rob Reynolds but that was the only point they could chalk up in the local derby contest.

Men Pool B

After the opening round of pool play former champs Next Gen have quickly moved to the top of the table with a clean sweep win against Remuera. Headed by Rhett Purcell and Finn Tearney, Next Gen look like one of the major contenders again this year. The Eden Epsom v Blockhouse Bay encounter was the closest men's match in first round play with Blockhouse Bay narrowly winning 4-2. The doubles points were split and youngster George Stoupe picked up the decisive point for the Bay when he won his singles in three sets at number one.

Women Pool A

Royal Oak beat Parnell 8-0 in the opening match on Friday night to kick start their season. Across town at Blockhouse Bay the home side downed Kohimarama in a countback of sets after matches were locked at 3-3. This was a great first up win for Blockhouse Bay who are new to the competition this year.

Women Pool B

Bucklands Beach got off to a good start against Campbell Park by claiming both doubles matches but Campbell Park came back to win two of the four singles matches. Elyse Tse scored a good win at number one when she beat Jade Otway. Sunnyhills also opened its account with a 4-2 win against Pompallier. The doubles matches were split as were the top two singles but Sunnyhills ran away with the bottom two singles which they won easily.

Go to the SCARBRO Caro Bowl section at <https://www.tennisauckland.co.nz/scarbro-caro-bowl> for full draws and results