

1 NOVEMBER – 6 DECEMBER

Scarbro Caro Bowl 2019 Round 3

Men Pool A

Cockle Bay scored a terrific win against defending champs Karaka to top their group at the end of pool play. Cockle Bay picked up both doubles matches before Rob Reynolds and Connor Heap rounded off a 4-2 victory by winning their singles matches. Bucklands Beach swept aside Royal Oak at the other end of the table winning 8-0 to clinch third spot in the group.

Men Pool B

Next Gen won their third contest in a row to take top honours after pool play when they beat 2nd placed Blockhouse Bay without losing a match. Eden Epsom and Remuera finished deadlocked at 3-3 and split the bonus points when they were dead even after a sets and games countback. Eden Epsom finish third in the group just a solitary point ahead of the Remuera team.

Women Pool A

Royal Oak and Parnell advance to the semi-finals this Friday after scoring wins against Kohimarama and Blockhouse Bay respectively. After splitting the doubles matches Parnell claimed 3 of the 4 singles matches against Blockhouse Bay to claim second place in the group behind Royal Oak.

Women Pool B

The top of the table battle between Sunnyhills and Bucklands Beach was won 4-2 by Sunnyhills. They got off to a great start by winning both doubles matches in straight sets before securing victory with wins in the top and bottom singles matches. Campbell Park won its first contest of the season beating Pompallier to wrap up third place.

Semi-final matches will feature this weekend for the top two teams in each pool while the bottom teams will be doing battle in the relegation play-offs.

Go to the SCARBRO Caro Bowl section at <https://www.tennisauckland.co.nz/scarbro-caro-bowl> for full draws and results